Introducing Our Judge - Linda J. Moore (USA)

I was born and raised in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and after graduation from high school attended the University of Tulsa, where I earned a BS in Psychology. My first foray into dog breeding was at the age of twelve, when I registered a litter of champion sired Shetland Sheepdog puppies with AKC. While never achieving the goal of breeding a champion Sheltie, as a preteen I mastered the coat color inheritance of Shelties which provided a basis for my continued interest in genetics and study while at the University of Tulsa.

In the 1970's I acquired a Rottweiler bitch, a breed that was quite rare at the time. The breed also had a grave problem with crippling hip dysplasia that caused far too many dogs to be put down due to unendurable pain. This crisis led to efforts to reduce the incidence of HD by x-raying breeding stock and removing affected animals from breeding programs.

Personal experience that produced vastly improved outcomes of normal hips within the first generation proved to me that health testing was an essential tool at the disposal of ethical dog breeders.

The boom and bust oil economy of Tulsa necessitated more than one career change and at times interfered with breeding and showing dogs. But marriage to family friend Wayne Claybourne and acquisition of a French Bulldog forever changed my life. Utilizing knowledge acquired from my first two breeds, my first homebred puppy not only became a champion but also passed all her health tests and became the foundation bitch of Concharty.

Becoming a judge was a natural progression of my interest in dogs, and in 2006 I began judging an impressive lineup of assignments. I remain both grateful and humble for the opportunity to judge French Bulldogs and evaluate them according to the standard in the country I am judging.
