The French Bulldog Club of NSW sincerely thanks Royal Canin for their ongoing and long-term support.

Royal Canin have sponsored the French Bulldog Club of NSW for 20 years!

Greetings and a warm welcome to the French Bulldog Club of NSW 75th Championship Show

Today we celebrate another major milestone with the Club's hosting of its' 75th Championship Show. It all started 38 years ago in May 1986! Since then, the Club has grown and been responsible for bringing exhibitors some of the world's leading French Bulldog specialists, both local and international, to judge for us. The breed is better as a result, and we thank you all for your support today.

Congratulations to Marika Farrugia on attaining your judges' ticket and for being elected by your peers to judge for us today. This is an honour for you and a testament to your dedication, knowledge and honesty. We do hope that you enjoy evaluating and critiquing our wonderful breed.

It goes without saying that our deepest gratitude extends to the incredible team whose tireless efforts behind the scenes have made this event possible. To Sheridan Ledger, our show secretary; Lisa Vassallo, our trophy steward; Debra Brady, our perpetual trophy steward; Jenny Roberts, our treasurer; Voula Manos our merchandise officer; and Lloyd Grosse, our publicity officer - you are the unsung heroes of our success.

The position of Show Manager remains vacant until a suitable candidate can fill the role. Until then I will continue to help with this. Don't be shy if you'd like to take this on. We need all the help we can get.

We are immensely grateful to all our donors and sponsors, both individuals and organisations. A special mention must be made of Royal Canin, whose support for the Club shows spans over two decades, a testament to a remarkable partnership.

Many thanks to Victoria Masterfield and Sally McNamara for stepping in at short notice to fill the steward and Dogs NSW rep roles. We very much appreciate your help and hope you enjoy your day.

Let us remember that while we gather here to celebrate and compete, the true essence of today is the joy and companionship our beloved Frenchies bring into our lives. Each one is a winner, a cherished member of our families, and the very reason we convene with such enthusiasm and pride.

Good luck everyone, and let the show begin!

Liz Davidson
President

Introducing Our Judge - Marika Farrugia (NSW)

I first stumbled upon French Bulldogs when I was a junior veterinary nurse many many years ago – 16 years to be exact. One day while at work one came in to be euthanased... somehow upon talking to the lady I ended up getting him signed over to me and taking him home. I called him Buster and he lived with me for a further 6 years before he developed cancer. He was such a joy to have around and thought that he was a farm dog rounding up the sheep on a daily occurrence.

My first show French Bulldog I was given to me by my good friends Julie and Erin Henville. Elluje Don't Cramp My Style aka Poppy a pied bitch. She was such a sweetheart and I still miss her to this day. She was titled and became an Australian Champion. She lived out her twilight years on the farm sunning herself under the big pepper tree in the backyard. She really cemented my love for the breed and I cannot imagine my life without one.

I took a break from showing for a while and my good friend and mentor in the breed Liz Davidson from D'Accord Kennels had a litter of pups by Ch. D'Accord La Vie en Rose. She asked me to come over and have a look at the pups one afternoon. In the litter there was a beautiful brindle bitch who Liz thought I might like to show. Well, none the less once I saw that pup Miss Ivy May came to live with me. She became my new showgirl and foundation bitch.

She was to become the matriarch of the household. She was a handful, but we had so much fun showing. Nan was very fond of her and Poppy. Nan would let the girls rule the roost when we stayed with her showing up on the Midnorth Coast. Ivy May had one litter to which my heart dog was born – Ch. Bousson Lily Rose Royale. Lily is a dog that can never be replaced for me. I see so much of her mother and grandparents through her. A win with Lily which I will never forget was Spring Fair when she was only 8 months – 25 point Best of breed. To say that I nearly fainted in the ring that day to have such a young bitch win was an understatement and a day I will never forget. Lily has also won a Runner-up Best in Show at the French Bulldog Club of NSW Specialty in June 2022. I see a lot of Lily's attributes in her daughter Bousson Charming Ms Charlotte – Charlotte has had limited showing but is out and about in the show ring at the moment.

I have been an active member of The French Bulldog Club of NSW since 2011. I have recently become a judge with my first group being Non Sporting. I am currently studying my second group – Group 1 Toys. My first judging appointment was at The Country of Cumberland Kennel Association Inc in April this year which I thoroughly enjoyed.

I am honoured and humbled to be asked to Judge the French Bulldog Club of NSW speciality. I appreciate your entry and I am looking forward to a lovely day with your beautiful dogs.

Kind regards,

Marika Farrugia
